Marion loved a young girl
Marion was American
He loved young beautiful girls
He was beautiful to see as a guy

I loved her more than anything
More than the young girls of my house
She, at least she cared about me
When, I tell her my feelings for her

I'm running away from my minds
I am Marion
Her name was Mana
A young rider girl

Because she wanted to become a signet ring
She and her mother conquered the world
She didn't tell me she was a princess
I wanted to protect her, but she preferred to save me

She died at the end
I will never forget him
She was precious to me
That I wanted to marry her

In the end I had no choice but to kill myself
I wanted to tell him: that I loved him so much
And that she mattered to me
More than all my Mana

Marion Marion Marion
He was so handsome, so handsome man
